

I LOVE ROCK & ROLL

Bridging from his popular British Invasion program, "I Love Rock 'N Roll" offers something special and unique for those who enjoyed American rock hits from the 1960s and 1970s. "When we started our first electric shows on the cello, we never could have imagined how popular they would be received" says author, historian, and musician Alex Prizgintas, who has made a career of blending harmonies with the rich histories of composers and songwriters from decades past, in addition to pushing the classical cello into realms that are unique and unexpected. Opening with Joan Jett's iconic rock anthem, this new catalogue of blockbuster tunes includes Bruce Springsteen's Born to Run, Chicago's 25 or Six to 4, ZZ Top's Tush, Mountain's Mississippi Queen, Three Dog Night's "Mama Told Me Not To Come," Sugarloaf's: Green-Eyed Lady," Edgar Winter's "Frankenstein," and so much more.

I Love Rock and Roll- Joni Jett

Born to Run: Bruce Springsteen

25 or Six to 4: Chicago

Tush: ZZ Top

Mississippi Queen: Mountain

Mama Told Me Not To Come: Three Dog Night

Green-Eyed Lady: Sugarloaf

Frankenstein: Edgar Winter

Reelin' In The Years: Steely Dan

Me and Bobby McGee: Janis Joplin

Sweet Child O' Mine: Guns 'n Roses